The Tabernacle

This portable temple was built in the wilderness by the Israelites circa 1450 BC after they were freed from Egyptian slavery. The Tabernacle was the first temple dedicated to God and the first resting place of the Ark of the Covenant. It served as a place of worship and sacrifices during the Israelites' 40 years in the desert while conquering the land of Canaan.

Be Thankful

A circular opening in a dark, layered rock formation. A bright light source is visible behind the opening, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding rock. The rock has a textured, stratified appearance.
