

*A Morning
Prayer*

Psalm 5

A Morning Prayer

Psalm 5

¹Give ear to my words, O Lord; consider my groaning.

²Give attention to the sound of my cry, my King and my God, for to you do I pray.

³O Lord, in the morning you hear my voice; in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you and watch.

David's Routine

A Morning Prayer

Psalm 5

⁴For you are not a God who delights in wickedness; evil may not dwell with you.

⁵The boastful shall not stand before your eyes; you hate all evildoers.

⁶You destroy those who speak lies; the Lord abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

⁷But I, through the abundance of your steadfast love, will enter your house. I will bow down toward your holy temple in the fear of you.

Why He Prayed To God

A Morning Prayer

Psalm 5

⁸Lead me, O Lord, in your righteousness because of my enemies; make your way straight before me.

⁹For there is no truth in their mouth; their inmost self is destruction; their throat is an open grave; they flatter with their tongue.

¹⁰Make them bear their guilt, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; because of the abundance of their transgressions cast them out, for they have rebelled against you.

David's Request

A Morning Prayer

Psalm 5

¹¹ But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy, and spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may exult in you.

¹² For you bless the righteous, O Lord; you cover him with favor as with a shield.

The Reason To Rejoice

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a dark lace-trimmed top, is shown in profile with her hands clasped in prayer. The background is a warm, golden-yellow glow with soft bokeh light spots. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.
